James Dill

Jim is a Summa Cum Laude Graduate of the Indiana University of PA – BA Criminology – and was valedictorian of the Criminology Department.

Jim has dedicated his entire law enforcement career to matters dealing with investigative technologies. He is a 30 year veteran of the PA Office of Attorney General (OAG) with 27 of those years served as an agent, supervisor, or director of the unit responsible for technology and surveillance matters. He was later promoted to Deputy Chief and placed in charge of all Investigative Services.

Throughout his career Jim has participated in hundreds of investigations involving the use of investigative technology for the OAG as well as with a variety of federal, state, and local law enforcement agencies. He has been qualified and has testified as an expert on investigative technologies in both the Common Pleas and Appellate Court systems.

Jim is currently working as an instructor and subject matter expert on the dangers of technology especially for teens and preteens. He is president and CEO of Innovative Technologies and Investigative Solutions, LLC, which specializes in technology training and consulting, for law enforcement, school districts and victim advocate organizations.
